FRIENDSHIP IS LIKE A FIELD OF GRASS; IT REQUIRES FAVORABLE CONDITIONS TO GROW AND DEVELOP

A familiar sight to any football player is the seven man's sled.

Mr. Lovett tries to relax during a busy day at "work."

Mr. North's Chemistry Class relieves the tension of a hectic day.

Football players show their spirit at a pep rally?

The Krabba theme "Friends" grew out of the friendly and more relaxed atmosphere that prevailed this year at Hampton High School as a result of the efforts of Mr. Wilbert Lovett. Mr. Lovett, in his first year as principal, referred to the students as "The Family of Hampton High School." Although a majority of students laughed when hearing this, a great appreciation for his efforts to bring about unity was displayed by the student body. Mr. Lovett, who respected each student as an individual and never neglected their needs, was given in one assembly a standing ovation. Credit for this new friendliness must also be given to the faculty and student body for this new atmosphere could not have existed without the efforts of the entire "Family of Hampton High School."

School is out!

FRIENDSHIP IS THE WARM

Billy McGuffin beats time to the music.

Hurry — Get your free friends — Anywhere — Money can't buy 'em — They come in assorted sizes, shapes, colors, and ages — Get 'em while they last — Hold on to 'em, too — or they'll be gone before you know it.

Hampton is on top — as usual!

A typical scene at Hampton is the overcrowded bookstore during the morning and at lunch.

GLOW OF A SUMMER SUNSET.

The cheerleaders literally "led" everybody at the bonfire.

The Hampton High School Cafeteria.

Friendship is a relationship of loving and being loved; any other is just an acquaintance.

A young couple stroll hand-in-hand down the hall.

TRUE FRIENDSHIP IS LIKE SPACE — NEVER ENDING

The makings of an almost perfect dive.

Republicans went to all extremes to help re-elect Nixon.

A FRIEND IS ALWAYS THERE

This year's pep rallies included Cowboy Day, Thanksgiving pep assembly, and various other pep rallies for our deserving teams. Due to Mr. Lovett's generosity, more time was allotted for pep rallies this year. During the Thanksgiving assembly SCA members raced around the gym with sheets collecting money tossed from the bleachers by students. The money was then given to the needy. On the whole pep rallies were more successful at rousing the school spirit this year.

Three SCA dances were held this year and contrary to last year all were slightly financially successful. Bands playing both rock and soul music were credited with the new success.

MOCK PRESIDENTIAL CONVENTION, SUCCESS!

Through the efforts of Roger Goldman and Danny McFarland, the student body was able to have a mock presidential convention. Mayor Montague spoke on Nixon's behalf, Art Lieverman spoke for McGovern and the Democrats, and Lemar McGee spoke for the spirited American Party. Each speaker was greeted by rousing cries of support from their followers. In the school election where students had to register, Nixon was elected overwhelmingly. Roger Goldman pointed out that the assembly proved young people with different points of view can get together and peacefully express their opinions.

The Mighty Crabbers defeated the Menchville Monarchs 7-0 on the weekend of Football Homecoming, October 21 and 22. The brisk night air made the court members a bit reluctant to shed their coats, but they finally filed out to their positions on the field. Then the band struck up a number to add to the excitement of Regina Harris, who was crowned Homecoming Queen. Other attendants on the court were sophomores Linda Jenkins and Jackie Richardson, juniors Connie Farris and Gay Cross, seniors Cressondra Brown and Valerie Pearce.

Basketball Homecoming will always be something special to the court members. All the attendants will remember finding their dresses and escorts both in one day. The rehearsal and actual presentation took place during the halftime of the Bethel-Hampton game while onlookers anticipated the crowning of the new queen. Then Roger Goldman and Tommy Sweeney presented the honor to Denise Lineberry, who was crowned Basketball Homecoming Queen. Sophomore attendants were Susan Anthony, Terry Worrell, and Debbie Barrett. Junior attendants were Betty Fedzuik and Paige Speight. Senior representatives on the court were Jean Jones and Kim Davis.

SPECIAL ASSEMBLIES PROVE INTERESTING

Hampton was fortunate this year to have many special assemblies. Mr. & Mrs. Richard H. Raring, parent counselors, spoke on Sudden Death Syndrome. Southampton inmates talked with students in various classes. Mr. Thomas Geer lead an assembly dealing with the Rededication of the Freedom Shrine. Cindi Goodwin an olympic participant, received a bouquet of flowers from the band.

1. Karen Sacks expresses her views on morning devotions. 2. Tyrone Manley's speech proves successful. 3. Juniors listen as candidates reveal opinions. 4. Joel Jesse campaigns for the office of vice president.

The '73-'74 SCA elections were extremely close and exciting. Many students showed their enthusiasm during the final speeches by wearing hats, carrying banners and balloons. Students listened tentively as the candidates gave their speeches. Matt Horne was elected president along with Betty Fedzick as vice-president, Laura Stein as secretary, Ginny Dutrow as treasurer, and Tyrone Manley as chaplain.

SPECTACULAR TALENT

The beautiful Miss HHS of 1973 was crowned Miss Josilyn Williams. The ten contestants modeled school clothes, with pictures of their school life flashing in the background. Talent was next on the agenda. Some of the technical props ran into trouble, poor Josilyn had to do her whole talent routine over again. After modeling their evening gowns the five semi-finalists were announced: Marion Fulgham, Denise Hopson, Rhonda Parham, Marilyn Joyner, and Josilyn Williams. Josilyn was crowned at the conclusion of the Junior Class sponsored evening.

1. Patricia Diaz does a monologue from Anna and the King. 2. Rhonda Parham does a modern dance routine. 3. Marilyn Joyner tells her poem whether we want to hear it or not.

DAY

May Day came in with a splash and a bubble. The long afternoon was climaxed when Mr. Lovett defied all predictions and took his place beneath the dunking booth. After filling stomachs with SCA baked goods and drinks from the new coke machines, everyone reluctantly returned to sixth period.

1. SCA helpers sell bubbles and refreshments. 2. The gang prepares to jam. 3. David Stacy and Susan Bowler relax in the grass. 4. Has football season begun? 5. Mr. Lovett patiently awaits the dunking. 6. Friends and bubbles! 7. Hollywood (David Bishop) tries his luck at winning a snake. 8. Volleyball provides recreation for all.

"STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN"

On the evening of May 5, 1973 both the boys' and girls' gyms were transformed into heavenly havens. The theme of the Junior-Senior prom was "Stairway to Heaven" and the decor carried out the theme. The dance had a modern effect with strobe lights and black lights. Music was provided by the Jammin' Jammers.

Valerie Pearce and Tommy Sweeney were crowned Queen and King of the Prom. Frances Kapshuck and Johnnie Williams were Princess and Prince.

1. and 2. Juniors diligently prepare for the prom. 3. Bonnie Jones and date admire the cake. 4. Prom couples eagerly anticipate the announcement of King and Queen. 5. Susan Roberts and Trippy Wornom model prom attire. 6. Prom chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Speight.

The Serpent, an open theater production, attracted a good crowd. It was the only production in which the audience was seated on stage, giving them an intimate rapport with the players.

The second play, The Triumvirate, was produced primarily for competition. It was performed during school hours; however, only second period English classes were admitted to see it.

With the exception of the lighting, headed by John McFarland, the players alternated responsibilities for a broader field of experience.

1. Kathy Gresham prepares to fire the cannon. 2. Danny Bunn plays with his toys. 3. Gene Wilson and Debbie Wapner act frightened. 4. Mr. Heatwole overdramatizes his anger. 5. Thespians show their acting abilities. 6. Players in The Triumvirate pose for a picture. 7. Serpents try to tempt innocent Eve. 8. Serpents gather around Eve in the play The Serpent.

The SCA, under Sid Alvis, has had a most productive year. There was the usual Toys for Tots drive, and the Thanksgiving pitch was highlighted by a money toss during an assembly. This year the school's constitution was revised, and the annual May Day celebrations were termed the best ever. Mr. Lovett and Mr. Otis Parker, the sponsor, were much appreciated for the help rendered.

SCA Officers: (front) Gene Wilson, Sid Alvis, Brian Witherspoon; (back) Mr. Lovett, Anne Chisman, David Ozment.

SCA Executive Board: (front) Debbie Ray, Cynthia Davenport, Brian Witherspoon, Sid Alvis, Anne Chisman, Gene Wilson; (back) Darlene Binns, Mr. Otis Parker, David Bishop, Trip Wornom, Roger Goldman, Bob Jones, Denise Lineberry, Brenda Hawks, Karen Falk, Jeff Kiser, Randall Johnson, Sheryl Creech.

The Executive Board and the Honor Council are two additional SCA "clubs." Members of the Executive Board are in charge of certain committees concerned with school activities such as welfare, dance, and student relations. The Honor Council is concerned with honor codes in the school, and the major purpose is to be responsible for cheating in the school. Both of these are beneficial to the operation of the school, and add much.

Gene Wilson makes his speech introducing new candidates.

WE NOT ONLY MAKE

Krabba Staff: (back) Sheryl Creech, Cheryl Bounds, Jim Dixon; (middle) Eleanor Borbas, Patty Murray, Paige Speight; (front) Miss DeLoatch, Eleanor Patrick, Susan Roberts, Laura Stein.

Due to a defection in the Krabba Ad Staff, the motto of the 1973 Krabba became "we not only make it' we sell it!"

Jim Dixon once again survived as the only male member of the staff and Miss DeLoatch survived her first year as sponsor.

Eleanor Patrick was awarded The Most Ingenious Krabba Staff Member for being the only staff member who couldn't type but got her pages in, on time, anyway!

ANNUAL SALES CONTINUE TO DECLINE

The ad staff consisted of Elizabeth Moran, Teresa Derette, Lynn Jones, and Debbie Becouvarakis who sold ads while Miss Kay Bancroft sold the annuals through the first period classes. Miss Bancroft handled the paper work while first period representatives sold the annuals. This year, as in the past, ad and annual sales decreased.

Spearheaded by President Dale Goodman and sponsor Mrs. B.P. Griffin, Krabba Karavan, Hampton's amateur radio show, enjoyed a great year. The shows dealt mainly with community activities, but the most interesting concerned a vegetarian diet in which two HHS students participated. The traditional student of the week was changed to student of the month, making it a more prestigious award.

The club was led by President Dale Goodman, Vice-President Joan Mitchell, Secretary Anne Chisman, and ICC representative Nina Kibler.

NEVER LET THE FACTS INTERFERE WITH A GOOD STORY

The Krabba Highlight Staff's motto this year was: "Never let the facts interfere with a good story." This motto was evident each publication of the newspaper.

Business Manager Nancy Van Valkenburg announced in September that the financial picture was dim; by June the light had gone out. Even with all the troubles, the newspaper staff worked on and on and on . . .

The Krabba Highlight received two first places from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the Virginia High School League. Editor Sandy DiPersio caused a stir. Letters poured in from Bill Crosby, Gale Sayers, Lorne Greene,, etc. The main sentiment of the Krabba Highlight Staff was, "Maybe if we try really hard this time we'll meet the deadline!"

1. Sandy DiPersio diligently reviews final layouts before sending them off to be printed.
2. Mrs. Corzatt makes a check on Steve Popovich's reading material.

1. Bruce Akey conducts Honor Society meeting.

The National Honor Society began this year with the induction of new members. Inducted were five seniors, and 34 juniors. In the fall, some of the members attended the District Convention at William and Mary. During the year, they sold HHS class pins to raise funds for a scholarship, which they gave to an outstanding member. They also helped out the Keyettes by participating in their tutoring program. On April 14, some of the members attended the South Eastern Virginia District at I.C. Norcom. The National Honor Society ended their year with a picnic which was held at Mrs. Livingston's house.

ICC VOTES NOT TO ABOLISH ITSELF

1. Brian Witherspoon tries to hold the attention of Dale and Nina.

This year the Inter-Club Council is still fighting a losing battle. Out of a membership of fifty-one organizations, the greatest number represented at one meeting never exceeded ten. The organization sponsored a "soul" band, The Preparations, that played for the student body in November. The ICC also aided in the establishment of the Surfing Club. But the greatest achievement of the club was voting not to abolish itself.

Seafarer is a semi-annually published literary magazine. All students were encouraged to submit creative writing and art for each publication. The Seafarer staff, under the leadership of Mrs. Randall, met and commented on each article and chose the best for the magazine. Co-editors were Debra Mero and Beth Rives and poetry editor was Kathy Gresham.

QUILL AND SCROLL RECOGNIZES LITERARY ACHIEVEMENT

Quill and Scroll: (back) Anne Chisman, Roger Goldman, Joan Mitchell; (front) Missy Trevallion, Jean Mitchell, Sandy DiPersio, Lona Ingram.

Quill and Scroll is a society which honors literary students. Students become eligible for membership when they are recommended by Krabba, Krabba Highlight, Seafarer, and Krabba Karavan sponsors. Members of this honorary society must maintain a high academic standard. Quill and Scroll furthers interest in journalism.

This year's new members include Jim Dixon, Mickey Hilling, Amy Kaiser, Debra Mero, Mary Morris, Patty Murray, Eleanor Patrick, Susan Roberts, Laura Stein, Nancy Van Valkenburg, and Cathy Womack.

LATIN HONOR SOCIETY FLOURISHES!

With Doug Taylor acting as President, the Latin Honor Society had a full and fun year. Participating in the inter-club soccer games, the LHS came out with an undefeated record, 5-0. The year's activities also included a meeting with the "immortal" Dr. Selby as guest speaker. At the annual Honor-Society banquet, the fun included chariot races, gladiator fights, and the induction of the "slaves," the new inductees. Mrs. Mabel Hall rules as sponsor.

1. Donell Shumaker and Jim Dyche serve as reluctant slaves in Honor Society banquet. 2. Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Taylor act as Roman matrons at the banquet.

Steve Popovich and Belinda Hill emerge as winners in the chariot races.

HHS added another club to its roster this year with the formation of the Classical Club. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Mabel Hall, Mat Horne was elected as President. The club was organized to stimulate interest in ancient times, and the only prerequisite to joining is true interest. Dr. Selby, of the University of Richmond was featured as a guest speaker.

Historian clubbers are interested in revitalizing history's "dry bones." With Mr. Tarkenton as sponsor, the highlight of the year's activities was a trip to New York, joint with the German Club. Members sold doughnuts and held a garage sale to raise money to go. At one meeting a guest lecturer discussed geneology. The year was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

GERMAN IS FUN!

Under the sponsorship of Frau Stout, the German Club had a full year. There were candy, garage and bake sales to help finance a trip to New York. There was a trip to Washington and the German Embassy. Later in the year, clubbers attended a state meeting in Maryland which featured many German events. The clubbers also enjoyed an Oktoberfest and a bike ride in Williamsburg. The members com-ed in soccr matches with other school clubs, and enjoyed a few vic-tories. Some clubbers attended a Christmas German club party at William and Mary College. There was also a guest professor who lectured. The year ended with a big picnic.

Le Circle Français began the year by selling pies to increase the treasury. There was a bike-ride in October in Colonial Williamsburg. At Christmas time, the Circle Français celebrated with a party where they ate French foods prepared by the members. Le Circle Français participated in Foreign Language Week by helping to post signs in French, attending the banquet, and helping with the teachers' tea.

Try and get this pinyatta!

The Spanish Club started a new trend this year with the first inter-club soccer game. The Spaniards lost to the Krauts, 3-2. After another great pie sale and a visit by the IRS for tax evasion the club joined in the activities of National Foreign Language Week and made plans for the end of the year picnic.

It was another typical year for the Spanish National Honor Society. The members attended four meetings at which only Spanish was spoken. Planning and selecting a project or gift for the Spanish curriculum rounded out the year.

This year the Varsity Club did nothing except enjoy the honor of being in this club. The purpose of the club is to recognize those athletes who have lettered in a varsity sport.

FBLA RECEIVES HONORS AT DISTRICT CONVENTION

This year, the Future Business Leaders of America sold spirit bows, ribbons, pins, candy, and trash bags. The money received from the sale of trash bags was donated to the March of Dimes. During the year, they were under the leadership of Karen Cavanaugh, who was also Regional president and State vice-president. The members attended the Regional Convention at O.D.U. Honors received there were Denise Lineberry, first place public speaking; Colleen Cavanaugh, first place senior clerk typist; and Vanessa Jones, second place spelling. The bulletin board received a superior rating. On April 14, Colleen Cavanaugh and Vanessa Jones went on to the State Convention in Richmond, Virginia.

GIRLS JOIN THE ONCE ALL MALE INTERACT CLUB

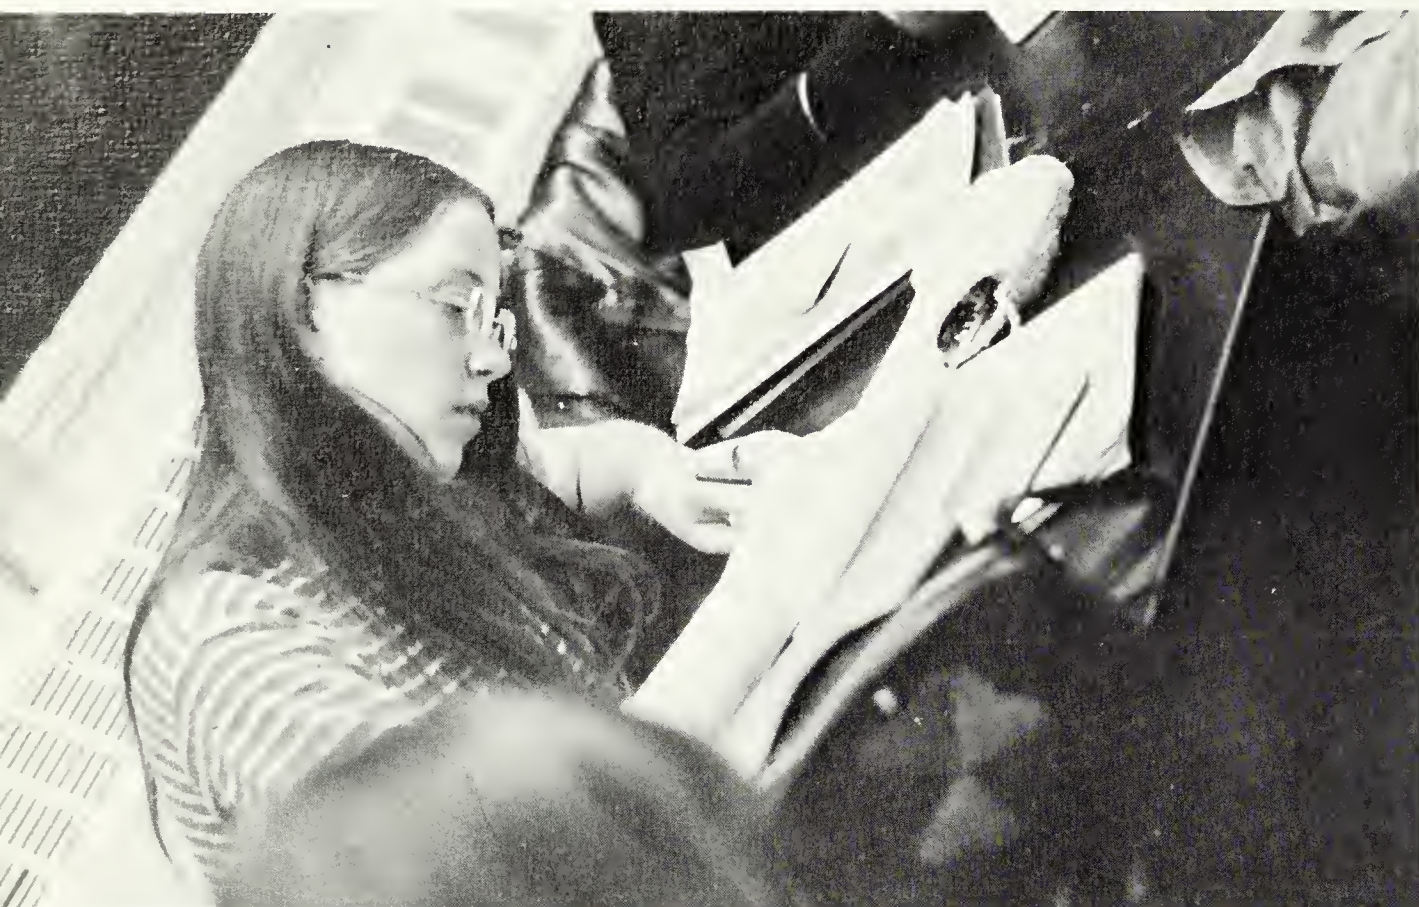

The Interact Club allowed girls to enter this year and the results were amazing. Last year the club was inactive, but this year under the leadership of Mr. Culter the club experienced a rebirth. The Veterans Administrations was a favorite visiting place for the club and Dale Goodman as Santa Claus brought memorable moments in a party given for the mentally retarded. The club scored a moral victory by defeating the Key Club in the annual Interact-Key basketball game. Next year the club hopes to make further progress towards becoming one of schools leading service clubs.

The club was lead by president Jim Dixon, vice-president Andy Goodman, treasurer Gary Goldacker, recording secretary Dale Goodman, and ICC representative Robert Wilson.

KEYETTES HELP OTHERS

The Keyettes of Hampton High School have had another busy year of service projects. Fund raising projects of selling car shampoo, candy, and stationary supported the Keyette efforts to help others. The Keyette project of the year was the "Walk for Mankind." Other activities included working at ROT, painting the bathroom doors, Christmas caroling, working at Hampton Fair Day, and honoring HHS policeman Mr. A.H. Mittelmaier.

Service is the main objective of the Key Club. Under the leadership of Rob Worley, the club has strived to serve both the school and the community. Early in the year the Key Club sold book covers and football programs. They also cleaned and painted the crab on the front lawn of the school.

In service to the community the Key Club collected for Muscular Dystrophy and helped the Hampton Roads Jaycees in their annual Apple Butter Sale. The club helped the Kiwanis Club in their booths at Langley Kids' Day, Hampton Fair Day, and in entertaining the senior citizen patients at the Hampton Veterans' Hospital.

The Leo Club, sponsored by the Hampton Lions Club, helped collect several hundred pairs of glass to aid them in their drive for eye glasses. They also helped their sponsor in selling brooms and maps. The club members assisted in organizing the "VPI" Young Virginians" concert. Leo members gave their support to the Baseball team. The officers include President Mike Stern, Vice-President Karen Falk, Secretary Micky Hilling and Treasurer Thomas Norris.

Coach Tyson, sponsor, along with members discuss future plans.

The Y-Teens, Young Womens Christian Association, had an extremely active year. Some of their projects consisted of a visit to the Washington Cathedral, a Christmas party for the deaf and blind at Virginia State School, and a POW Rally where they write congressmen and sold braclets. The members sold candy for their YWCA functions.

The Chem-Phy officers of this year were: Mike Mazur, President; Larry Skinner, Vice President; Kim Davis, Secretary; and Robbie Craven, Treasurer. The major project for the year was the construction of a hovercraft. Several scientific field trips were taken, including one to the Virginia Institute of Marine Science at Gloucester Point, Virginia; there was also one to the NASA Visitor Center at Langley Air Force Base.

Students maintaining an A average in Chemistry, Biology, and Physics are admitted into the Science Honor Society. America's future scientists may be in this club!

HELP SCHOOL RUN EFFECTIVELY

A.V. Staff: Brad Ferrand, Jane Twomey, Ricky Blackburn, and Mrs. Sprouse.

Student assistants play an important part in helping the school run smoothly. These students contribute their time to assist in the offices, bookstore, and library. Their numerous tasks include collecting IBM cards, answering the telephone, and running errands. Library aids check out books, shelve books, and send out overdue and repeated notices. AV staff assistants deliver and pick up audio visual equipment. The invaluable aid of these assistants is much appreciated by the faculty, administration, and student body.

1. Cheryl Nuckols writes out overdue notices. 2. Debbie Becouvarakis talks with Jim Martin before leaving to pick up IBM cards. 3. Mary Davis works for Mrs. Mohr in the clinic.

The Distributive Education Club started this past year with a fall rally for all new students. During the year they also held an employer-employee banquet. Each student is required to work a total of 160 hours to graduate. They were employed on a part-time basis by various businesses. This gave them a chance to learn as well as earn some spare money. Some of Hampton's DE students placed in competition in the Chapter Fourteen DE Contest and brought back honors. This past year's officers were: President — Susan Firth, V. President — Timmy Daube, Secretary — Marilyn Joyner, Treasurer — Rena Duncan, Chaplain — Robin Hughes, and Parliamentarian — Nancy Lewis.

1. Timmy Daube, Rae Newman, Terry Hall, and Debbie Kelley discuss future DE plans with Mr. Fertitta. 2. DE students hard at work.

Nancy Roach, Elizabeth McLean, and Margaret Lamkin talk with Mr. Blain about the state convention.

The Industrial Cooperative Training program (ICT) offers high school students the opportunity to receive valuable training in one of the many career fields within the areas of trade, industrial, technical, or health occupations. These students are hired by professional establishments on a part-time employment basis where they receive on the job training. In April, Margaret Lamkin, Nancy Roach, and Elizabeth McLean attended the stage Convention in Roanoke. John Holt was voted Student of the Year for District Four.

This year's Choral department, under the direction of Sidney Swiggett, was composed of the A'Cappella, Girls' Chorus, and Concert Choir. All three choruses contributed to the Fall, Christmas, and Spring Concerts.

The A'Cappella was as active this year as in previous ones. They started off the year with several afternoon football games against the band. In February the A'Cappella was invited to sing at the Peninsula Symphony Orchestra's 26th Anniversary. A'Cappella also sang at the All City and Regional Choral Concerts. Joe Luciano and Dennis Williford were nominated to go to State Chorus this year.

The A'Cappella raised money, by selling candy at home basketball games, for new music. The A'Cappella will also sing at the Baccalaureate Service at the Coliseum.

LIFT YOUR VOICE IN SONG

Amid the bustle of formal attire and wilting roses, many members of the A'Cappella choir sang in their last spring concert. For most, it was a time for reminiscing. Choir members presented Mr. Swiggett with two silver cups to show their appreciation of his guidance through the years.

Danny McFarland was honored as the most outstanding choir member. Ruth Council was presented the Arion Award, an award given to an excellent student who is planning to further his study in music.

CLASSES

Sophomores have taken an active part in many HHS activities during their first year at Hampton High. In the early part of the school year the sophomores collected dues that will help support next year's prom. Sophomore activities included taking care of the sophomore bulletin board and attending SCA and ICC meetings throughout the year. This year, just before Christmas, the sophomore class treasury collected and donated money to the Toys for Tots drive.

Leading the class of '75 are president Jeff Kiser, vice presidents Cindy Wood and Harris Bailey, secretary Susan Anthony and treasurer Connie Evans.

JUNIORS CAN'T KEEP PROM THEME SECRET

Headed by Lance Enderson, the class of '74 has been busy planning the Junior-Senior Prom. Numerous fund-raising activities have helped bring the treasury to a level that can support the tremendous expenses of the prom. The Executive Board started the year by collecting class dues. During the pre-Christmas season, juniors sold placemats with scenes of Christmas and of Virginia. Annually the Miss HHS

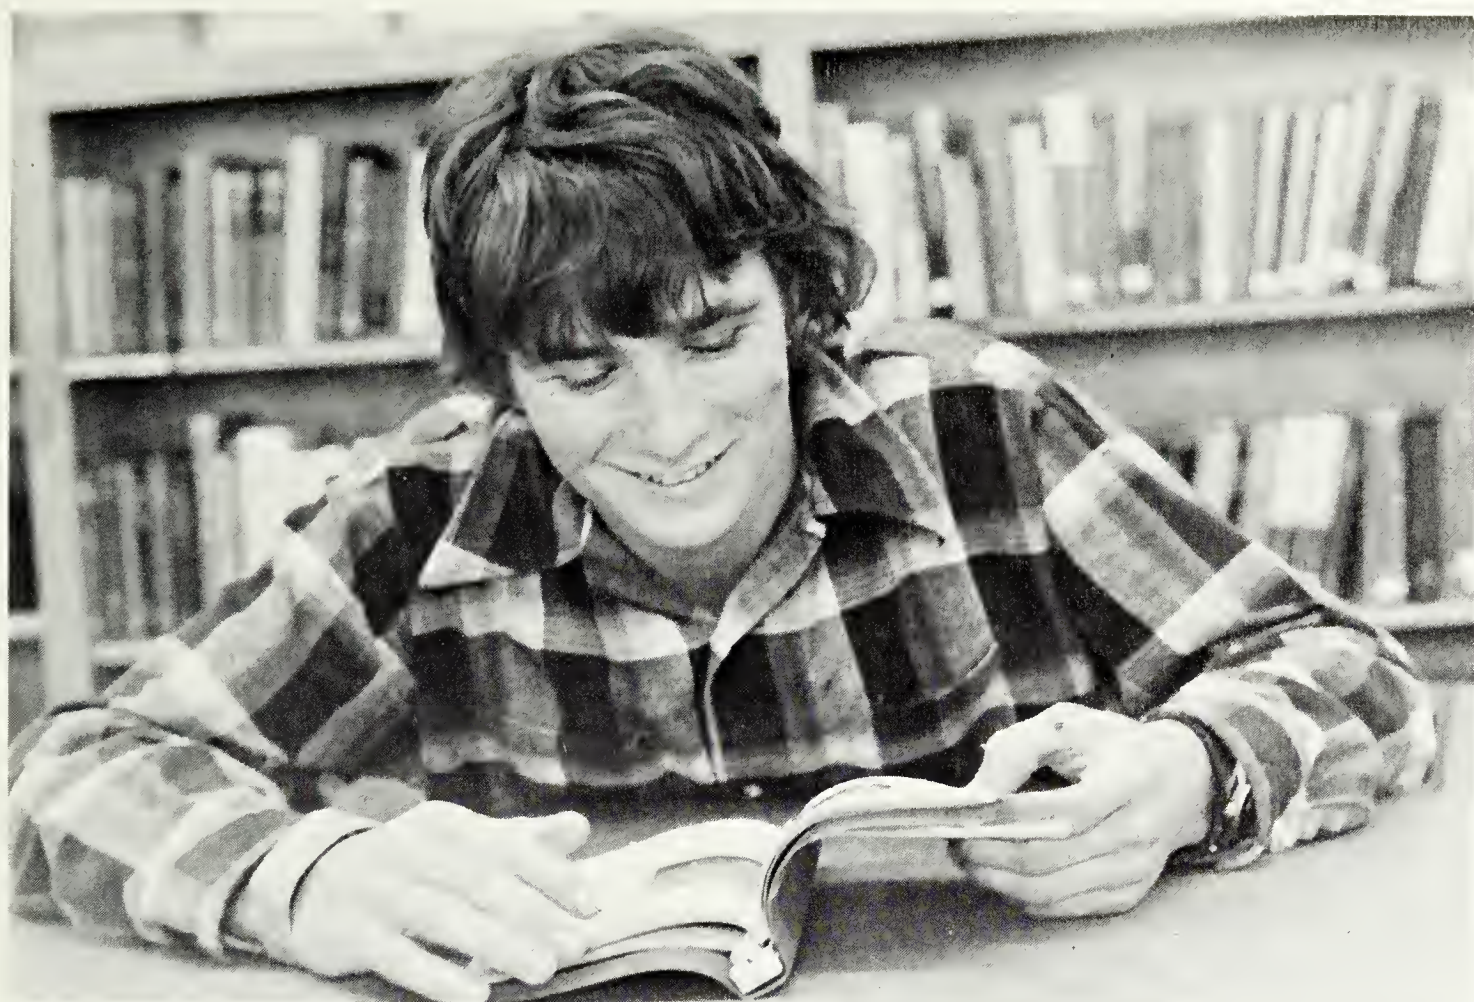

Junior class officers: Ruth Council, Treasurer; Connie Farris, Secretary; Billy Van Buren, Vice President; Lance Enderson, President.

Contest is sponsored by the junior class. This year, Josilyn Williams, a junior was crowned Miss HHS.

This year, for the first time, juniors were able to select from a wide variety of class ring styles. Juniors impatiently awaited the arrival of their rings. HHS juniors displayed their spirit when class president Lance Enderson was awarded the spirit stick at every pep rally. The juniors are anxiously awaiting next year, while the enthusiasm of the class promises to continue through their senior year.

SENIORS LIVE IN CONSTANT FEAR OF " YOU WILL NOT GRADUATE"

The senior class officers were treasurer Trip Wornom, secretary Jean Jones, president David Bishop, and vice presidents Darlene Binns and Jack Jones.

The senior class began the year in a lethargic gait. Quickly the pace increased and the class of 73 began to feel there was more to school than term-papers, essays, and quizzes. After some senior slumping most of the class members realized that without excelling, school was little fun.

1. James Watts takes time to draw on his notebook. 2. Sid Alvis decides to do some of that homework he's been putting off. 3. Gary Goldacker is measured for graduation. 4. Socializing at the dance.

In June of 72 five girls spent a week at Radford College and six boys spent a week at William and Mary College. This was Boy's and Girl's State where these students played government. All of the participants felt the experience had its displeasing moments but most agreed they would not have missed it for the world.

Girl's State: (back) Sandy DiPersio, Rhonda Simpson, Jean Jones; (front) Joan Mitchell, Anne Chisman.

BOY'S, GIRL'S STATERS WOULD DO IT AGAIN!

Boy's State: Robert Worley, Gene Wilson, David Bishop, Roger Goldman, Jim Dixon, Randall Johnson.

David Bishop received the American Legion citizenship award and Jean Jones received the Daughters of the American Revolution good citizenship award.

Martha Diaz and Roger Goldman were National Merit-semi finalist.

OUTSTANDING SENIORS AWARDED

1. Rhonda Simpson gives a puzzled look to the teacher. 2. Tom Sweeny and Steve James do the "hemaglobin" handshake!

THE FOLLIES OF '73

The Follies of '73 was the theme of Class Night. Produced and performed by and for the Senior Class, The Follies of '73 was a humorous play consisting of several acts, each depicting a different aspect of the three years of HHS experienced by the Class of 1973.

1. The cast of the Follies of '73 lead in the singing of the Alma Mater. 2. Wally and the Weirdos sing about a typical corridor scene. 3. Classroom disorder results when the teacher turns his back. 4. HHS Cheerleaders yell the Wrestling Team on to victory. 5. Seniors waited anxiously in the gym before filing into the auditorium. 6. Ms. Eudy's fourth period, Junior English class . . . 7. Charlie Gerringer and "Turtle" Branch read the Last Will and Testament of the Class of '73.

STEP FOR SENIORS

Graduation 1973 was really no different from any other graduation. The theme of this graduation was different however from those of past years. It was a ceremony of dignity and formality.

Speaking for the graduation ceremony were Senior Class President David Bishop, Roger Goldman, and Brenda Hawks.

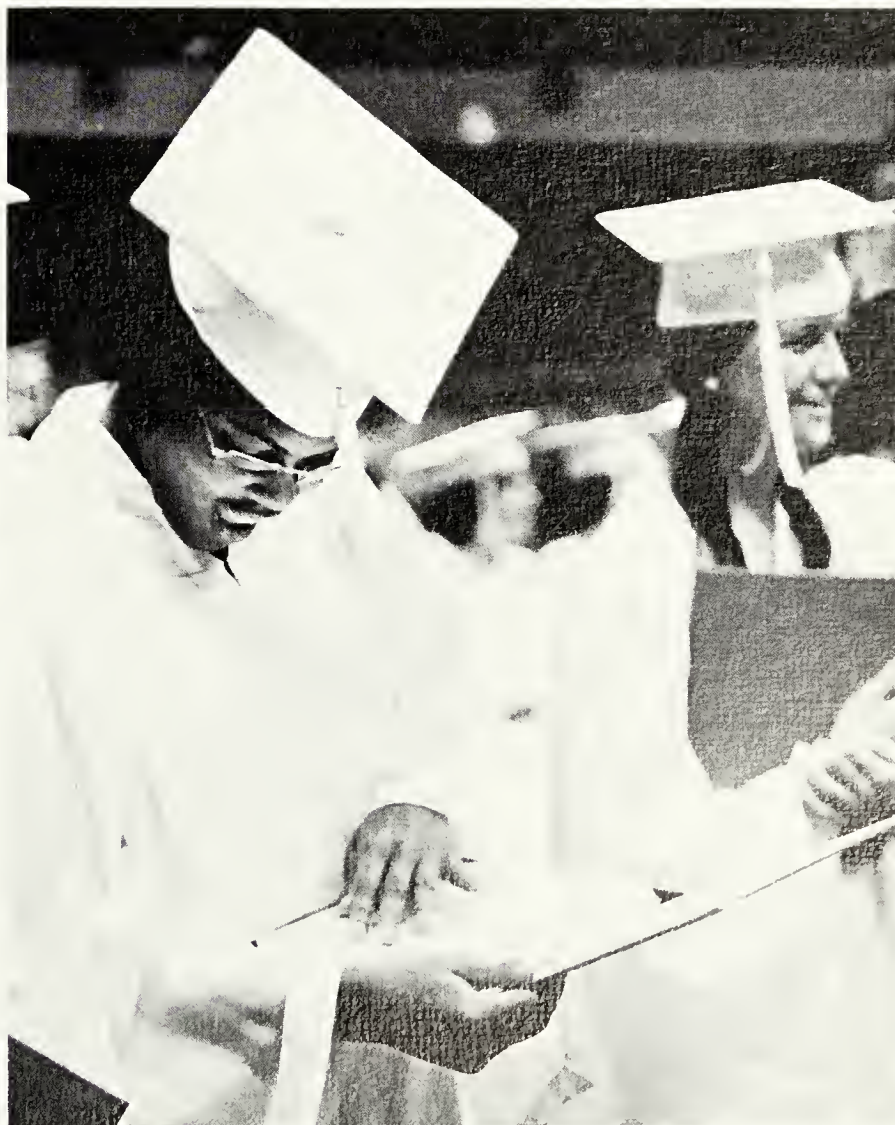

Although everyone had butterflies in their stomachs, it was over before anyone realized what had happened. Some students shed tears — others were happy at the prospect of leaving HHS after three years, but to most of the graduating seniors, every minute of the three years had been worth it to finally hold that diploma in their hands!

1. Near to capacity, Coliseum crowd viewed graduation exercises. 2. Congratulations! 3. Brenda Hawks speaks to a sea of caps. 4. Ricky Rickett has the privilege to be the first male graduate. 5. A graduating senior gets a congratulatory kiss. 6. Karen Harris checks to make sure it's really hers.

IN MEMORIAM

DEATH, BE NOT PROUD

Death, be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for, thou art not so,
For those whom thou think'st, thou dost overthrow,
Die not, poor death, nor yet canst thou kill me.
From rest and sleep, which but thy pictures be,
Much pleasure, then from thee much more must flow,
And soonest our best men with thee do go,
Rest of their bones, and souls' delivery.
Thou art slave to fate, chance, kings and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell,
And poppy, or charms can make us sleep as well,
And better than thy stroke; why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we wake eternally,
And death shall be no more; death, thou shalt die.

SPORTS

Led by William Pearson in his first year as coach the cross country team was only able to manage one victory against five losses. The team was made up of a few track regulars and the rest were swim team members preparing for their season. In one meet the team was clearly ahead until Tim Daube took a wrong turn resulting in a forfeit. The lack of spikes spelled doom in another meet which was run after a rain. Perhaps the new coach, William Pearson, can generate interest in this

MOST VALUABLE MILLS AND McNAIR LEAD CRABBERS

This year, as in years before, football practice began on a hot August 10th. Coach Smith's practices seemed never ending! As the season opened, however, the hard work seemed to pay off. On September 9, the Crabbers, paced by Thomas "Tinker" Mills and Lonnie McNair, had their first victory over First Colonial, 24-0. This marked the beginning of victory after victory for the domineering Crabbers. On November 10 they met their last and most difficult opponent — Bethel. The game started with a slow pace as Bethel scored the first touchdown. Things were looking pretty grim. But with offensive and defensive cooperation, the Crabbers came back with great force for a 14-7 victory over Bethel and the District Championship. The Regional game was now in sight and scheduled for November 24 against Maury. The night was very cold as the Crabbers met a heartbraking defeat, 16-8.

J.V. GRIDDERS GAIN EXPERIENCE

Under the supervision of Coach Woodard, the J.V. football team underwent a disappointing season. They finished with a record of two wins and five losses. The inclement weather hampered much of the J.V.'s progress. The experience gained by these players will help them make next year's varsity squad.

Led by Tri-Captains Gary Goldacker, Joel Jessee, and Bud Rogers, the Varsity wrestling team went on to place second in the district, with an overall 8-4 record. Outstanding wrestlers were Howard Spady, 108-pounder, and 185 pound Bud Rogers. Spady, with an overall record of 9-3, placed second in the Falcon Invitational Tournament, sixth in the Eastern Regionals, and third in the District Tournament. Bud Rogers placed third in the Falcon Invitational, and was a District champion. The junior varsity wrestling team put in over a hundred hours of long hard practice during the 72-73 season. Coached by Barry Brown, much of the team's strong leadership came from returning wrestlers. Although their record was not equal to those of previous seasons, the rewards of their hard work made the team's efforts worthwhile.

1. Sophomore, Jimmy Whitley, begins to pass the Menchville runner. 2. Julius Riddick, Hampton's outstanding hurdler shows his stuff! 3. Lance Enderson, with eyes closed, knows he can endure the last lap.

Characterized by their favorite cheer, "We Don't Mess Around," the 1973 HHS swimming team attained a dual meet record of 8-1 through the good coaching efforts of Dave Schindel and John Warner and the team's hard work. As usual, complaints rang out in practice . . . "A 1000 warm-up, that's impossible!" "Sprints, Oh no!" and "Coach, I'm sick!" These complaints were silenced, however, by Schindel's quiet manner and Warner's commands.

The year was highlighted by the team's victory over Kecoughtan in the District Championship. The Regional Championships brought defeat, however, when Kecoughtan edged the Crabbers by 3½ points. It was a good season, as the Crabbers worked hard to live up to their motto "work to win!"

GRA CHANGES TO GVHSL

Hampton's Girls Track Team finished fifth in district this year, sending one girl, Rhonda Parham, to State competition for the high jump. The 440 relay team, which consisted of Camella Franklin, Sandra Murray, Linda Lowe, and Angela Wilson, achieved second in district. Camella Franklin ended the season undefeated in the 50 yard dash.

The girls' Basketball Team ended with a one and four record.

Basketball Team: Rhonda Parham, Emma Williams, Robin Hall, Carolyn Jarvis.

Volleyball Team: (back) Robin Hall, Emma Williams, Camella Franklin, (front) Barbara Herbert, Connie Evans, Rhonda Parham.

The Girls' Volleyball Team completed a successful season placing second in District and first in intermural competition.

The Girls' Tennis Team, now a varsity sport, ended its season with a one and four record.

PEP CLUB MEMBERS HELP WITH CHEERS

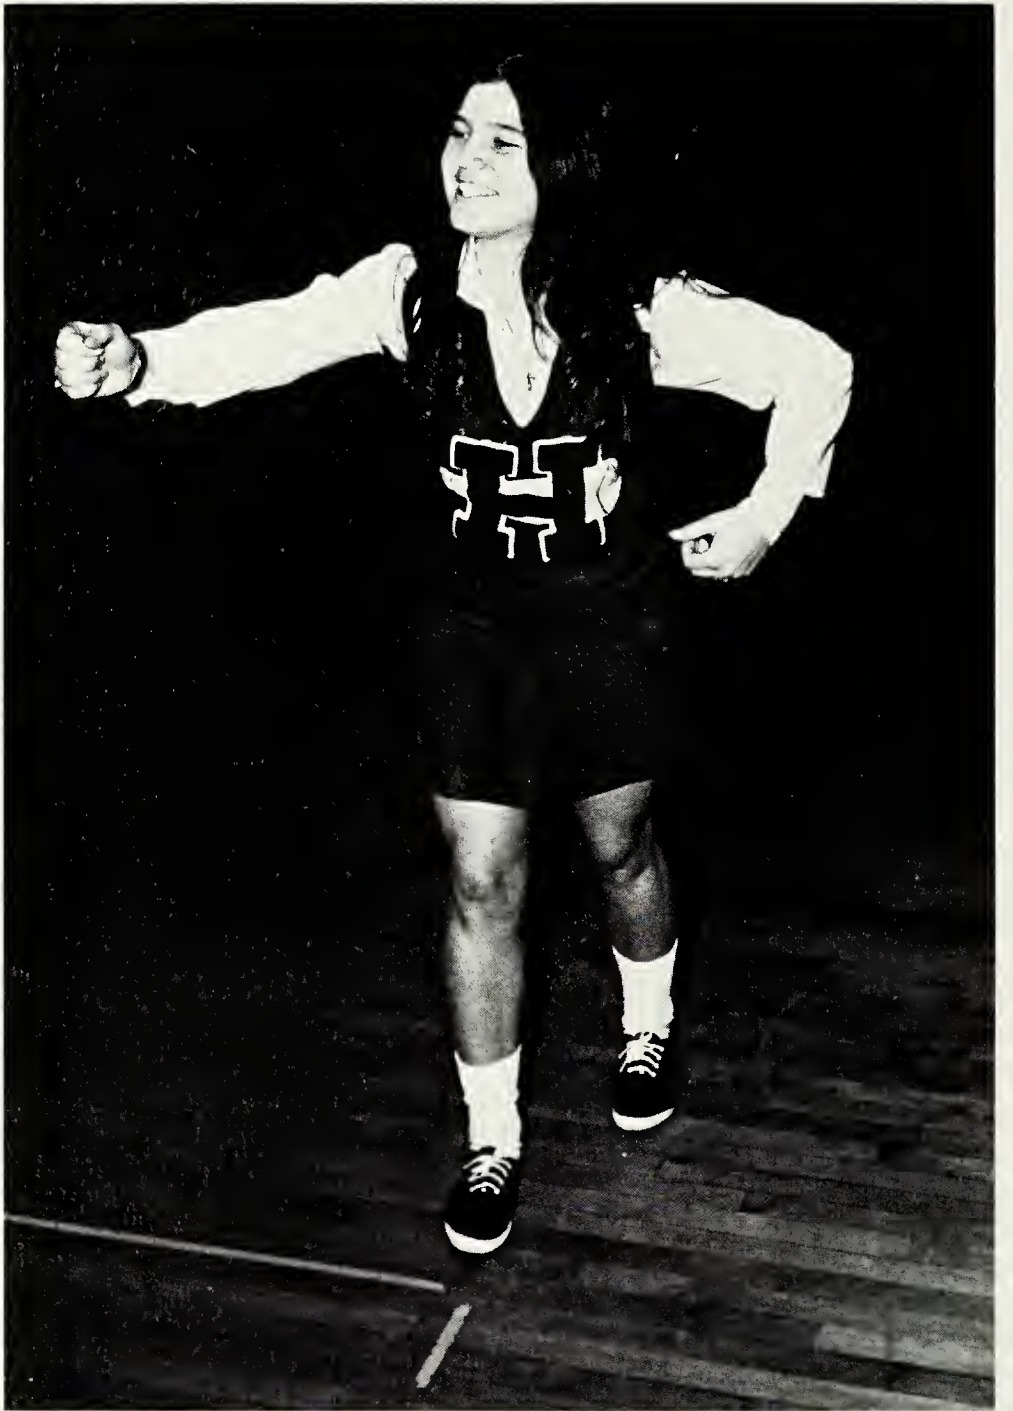

Mrs. Wade and Marion Santiful discuss activities.

The newly formed Hampton High Pep Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Wade, aided the cheerleaders in their cheers during the football season. The members cheered on both sides of the gymnasium during pep rallies. They also obtained the buses to carry students to away games. As a money making project the club sold red and white shakers. The officers consists of Carolyn Moses as President, Marion Santiful as Vice-President, and Eartha Bullock as Secretary-Treasurer.

J.V. Cheerleaders: (back) Jackie Hamlin, Tyrone Manley, Cindi Little; (middle) Susan Anthony, Debbie Becouvarakis, Paige Speight; (front) Linda Jenkins, Nancy Moore, Debby Barrett.

The J.V. Cheerleaders experienced an exciting year of cheering fun. Tyrone Manely led the squad along with Linda Jenkins, co-head. Summer activities included practices, bake sales, and making pompoms. The beginning of the year brought pep rallies, Saturday morning football games, decorating the goal posts, and then cheering in the stands with the crowd at varsity games. During basketball season, the cheerleaders were fortunate enough to cheer their team all the way to the District Championship. Often times they changed their names during the hello cheer. This mischievous act usually led to much confusion and laughter. Near the end of the year they were asked to show off their originality at making up meat chants at local meatcote rally. Everyone will always have special memories.

Varsity squad leads Crabbers in a cheer.

The Varsity Cheerleaders headed by Karen Cavanaugh and assisted by co-head Denise Lineberry started their busy year with summer practices and taking turns carrying Kool-Aid to those deserving football players during the hot summer practices. They even cheered the football team through a District Championship. The cheerleaders participated in pep rallies, painted signs, and made locker signs. Near the end of the year, they held a cheering clinic Wednesday nights. This year the cheerleaders even attended baseball games. Cheering was a new experience for this sport and it included being bat girls and sweeping off the bases at the end of each inning. Such a year will never be forgotten by Karen, Denise, Ellen, Gay, Tracey, Betsy, Cuppy, Regina, Connie, Donell, or Bunny.

FRIENDSHIP GOES DEEPER THAN WORDS

Connie Farris and Debbie Hyle pause at their locker between classes.

The perfect friend is the one who will stick by you even when everyone else has gone.

David Bowman confers with Mr. Scott.

Sewing prepares the girls for future homemaking.

Quiet study, alone in the hall.

It doesn't take much giving
To become someone's friend,
but, just the truthful sincereness
That comes from within.

Learning skills for fun and practicality.

A FRIEND IS ONE WHO BELIEVES IN HIMSELF.

The library proves to be a place for both study and socializing.

FRIENDSHIPS ARE LIKE

Freddie the Crab dances at a pep rally.

The ROTC presents the colors.

The bonfire arouses crabber spirit.

ANTIQUES: THEY ARE PRICELESS AND YET VERY FRAGILE.

Sophomores discover a new tool for learning.

Students gather at the famous breezeway.

Walter Jones demonstrates his perfect style.

Friendships are like antiques; they are priceless and yet fragile.
